with special needs*

Mission

The Arc of New Jersey Family Institute is committed to providing families with the necessary resources, information and education to access appropriate supports and services for their loved one with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

The Arc of New Jersey Family Institute also supports family members in becoming personally involved with public policy. It's our mission to assist families and friends of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities in advocating for positive, lasting change in public policy.

Education

The Arc of New Jersey Family Institute has become the “go to” place for families to get answers and help. We provide information on how to best navigate New Jersey’s service delivery systems through:

- Workshops and seminars
- Webinars and podcasts
- Fact sheets
- Individual advocacy
- Systems advocacy
- Information and referral
- A comprehensive website

There are many changes taking place within the service systems for children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Connecting with The Arc of New Jersey Family Institute is a must to keep your family informed, both now and in the future!

Advocacy

The Arc of New Jersey Family Institute advocates on behalf of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families, and keeps everyone informed of new developments through:

- Email updates
- Action alerts
- Monthly e-newsletter

Public policy advocacy is most effective when all members of the community actively participate, including those not directly impacted by intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Get connected to The Arc of New Jersey and be a part of our active advocacy network by signing up to be a part of our Families’ Network or Friends’ Network.
