

College Steps, a support service that partners with Kean University and County College of Morris, has some limited availability for the 2022-23 academic year

---

College Steps provides customized, college support for students with learning and social challenges such as learning disabilities, autism, and executive functioning deficits.

Learn More about College Steps

View our Informational Webinar

Admissions Information

Levels of Programming/Fees\*

Questions before Applying? Contact Us -- our Admissions team will be in touch and can meet with you to answer any questions you still have.

\ The majority of College Steps students benefit from full or partial funding to support the cost of College Steps. For additional information about specific program costs and offsets in your region, please contact ADMISSIONS.*

