

A List of College Programs for Students with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

Too often students with intellectual and developmental disabilities aren't encouraged to consider college for their future. The Arc of New Jersey Family Institute wants to change that. With the right services and supports in place, many young adults can successfully attend college and graduate with a degree or certificate. Below are several college programs in New Jersey that are designed specifically for students with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

- Adult Center for Transition at Rowan College at Gloucester County - bit.ly/Rowan500
- Career and Community Studies at The College of New Jersey - <https://ccs.tcnj.edu>
- College Steps at the Community College of Morris - www.ccm.edu/accessibility-services
- DREAM program at Mercer County Community College - bit.ly/DREAM500
- Garden State Pathways Program at Camden County College - bit.ly/Camden500
- Keep Achieving (KACH) at Brookdale Community College- bit.ly/KACH500
- The Achievement Center at Raritan Valley Community College - bit.ly/RVCC500
- Turning Point Program at Bergen Community College - bit.ly/BCC501

For more information about college programs, support services and scholarship opportunities visit:

bit.ly/FICollege