

FIVE FAST FACTS FOR FRIDAY

Kinship Navigator Program

- Kinship caregivers are special people who have taken on the responsibility of caring for their relatives' children. These children might be the caregiver's siblings, nieces, nephews, or, most often, grandchildren.
- Kinship Navigator supports caregivers who have taken on the responsibility of caring for their relatives' children.
- Local kinship agencies help caregivers navigate other forms of government assistance, determine their eligibility for Kinship Navigator Program benefits, and provide technical support with legal commitments to the child.
- By dialing 211, eligible kinship caregivers can get help addressing immediate problems, and they will also be referred to a local Kinship agency which will work with caregivers to access additional services.
- Kinship Care - Legal Guardianship Program: This service assists caregivers making a legal commitment to the child/children in their care. For more information, call 211.
