

FIVE FAST FACTS FOR FRIDAY

ASAH

- ASAH is a not-for-profit organization of private schools and agencies in New Jersey which provide highly specialized services to more than 11,000 infants, children and young adults with disabilities.
- ASAH works closely with its members and the New Jersey Department of Education to develop policy, promote effective educational practices, and foster productive collaborations.
- One of ASAH's roles is as a source and repository for information about special education services in New Jersey – for teachers and administrators, parents, school districts and state administrators.
- ASAH's toll-free Parent Assistance Line (1-877-287-2724) helps parents understand their rights and responsibilities under federal and state special education law.
- To learn more about ASAH call: (609) 890-1400